

VALLERIE TRENT
Lead Editor

Vallerie Trent joined the Office of Legislative Counsel as an editor in 2005.

Prior to joining the Office of Legislative Counsel, Ms. Trent was a public relations representative and editor for The Harrison Company, a publisher specializing in legal treatises. She also provided contract editorial services, including research, to Westlaw in support of its broad library of legal publications.

Ms. Trent earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from Georgia Southern University, where she was assistant managing editor of and award winning writer for the university newspaper.